

African Environmental Defenders supports environmental and land defenders who find themselves in emergency situations due to the nature of their work by providing emergency funding.

Visit envirodefenders.africa

ELIGIBILITY FOR THE EMERGENCY FUND

Any person is eligible to apply to the fund provided the applicant:

- Is a citizen of any African country or a person legally residing or working in any African country.
- Is an active environmental or land defender.
- Is a member of an organisation with International Land Coalition (ILC) membership.
- Is facing an imminent threat of harm, including but not limited to, a threat to their life, physical violence, political imprisonment or any other situation which, in the Committee's view, amounts to an emergency.
- Has not secured any other kind of support from another entity, organisation or person.

APPLY TO THE EMERGENCY FUND

You can apply to the Emergency Fund at <https://envirodefenders.africa>.

Alternatively you can e-mail help@envirodefenders.africa for more information.

Applications are generally processed in 48 hours.

African Environmental Defenders is a Natural Justice Initiative supported by the International Land Coalition.